

Migrants Labour Insertion in Multicultural Agricultural Teams

Empowering rural entrepreneurs and migrant workers for an inclusive agricultural sector

www.milimat.eu

MILIMAT is a project for rural entrepreneurs, farmers, and migrant workers in the farming sector. The project is designed to help these groups to create multicultural work teams, based on mutual understanding, respect for other cultures, and the firm conviction that diversity can enrich working environments in the agricultural sector.

MILIMAT aims to:

Promote migrant worker recruitment and inclusion in rural areas by enhancing employer and worker training, and fostering fair labor relations.

Foster understanding of European labor rights among rural migrant workers, encouraging their commitment and social participation.

Encourage ethical business culture for agri-entrepreneurs, managing multicultural teams with respect to values, culture, work, and labor rights.

Facilitate communication and support between agri-entrepreneurs and workers, combating labor exploitation & discrimination based on race/gender.

The MILIMAT consortium

The international team behind MILIMAT is made up of experts with diverse backgrounds in agriculture, social inclusion, and migrants and farmers' rights.

The project consortium consists of 6 partners from five European countries (Italy, Spain, France, Austria and Greece), coordinated by the Italian Farmers' Confederation (CIA) of Umbria, Italy.
